7 v.

8 TERRAFUSION, INC., et al.,

9 Defendants.

10 Case No. 15-cv-02993-RS

13 ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR
14 ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF

15 Plaintiffs Edward Rotstein and Terrafusion International, Inc. request leave to file three 16 separate motions for summary judgment or partial summary judgment addressing three different
17 legal issues. As Plaintiffs note, the Case Management Scheduling Order limits each party to one 18 motion for summary judgment. Plaintiffs conclude that because there are two of them (an 19 individual and a company), they are permitted to file jointly two motions for summary judgment.
20 Not so. Each plaintiff is entitled to bring only one motion. The arguments that Plaintiffs intend to 21 advance appear to apply equally to both of them. Thus, Plaintiffs' request is essentially a request
22 to exceed page limitations. Plaintiffs have not, at this point, provided sufficient justification for 23 exceeding page limitations. Their request for relief is thus denied. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs are 24 welcome to divide their motion for summary judgment into three parts, so as to present each set of 25 issues discretely. They are also encouraged to consider whether the motions listed in their request
26 are properly brought as motions for summary judgment or might instead be brought as some other
27 type of motion.
